Aristotle across II Boundaries

an Associated Event to the World Congress of Philosophy Rome 2024
11-12 June 2024

Organised by Silvia Fazzo (Università del Piemonte Orientale), Jean-Marc Narbonne (Laval University) and Marco Ghione (Università del Piemonte Orientale)

In preparation for the XXV World Conference of Philosophy in Rome 2024 “Philosophy across Boundaries”.

Speakers will share their works in progress in themes, texts, problems, related to the crossing-boundary capacity of Aristotle’s thought and legacy.

The hybrid conference will be hosted in the medieval Cripta di Sant’Andrea in Vercelli, Università del Piemonte Orientale, during the 11th-12th June.

You are warmly invited to participate on either way. Please check the link before every session because programs may be slightly adjusted during the conference.
