

DR2 THIRD DR2 CONFERENCE

16-17 January 2023

Distant Reading and Data-Driven Research in the History of Philosophy

16 January, 15:00-19:00

Session 1. Quantitative History of Philosophy: Methodological Peculiarities

15:00 Enrico Pasini (Torino, Roma), Introduction

15:20 Arianna Betti (Amsterdam), The Status of Philosophy as a Data-Driven Science

16:10 Sander Verhaegh (Tilburg), Toward a Computational History of American Philosophy:
Problems and Promises

17:00 Break

17:20 Christophe Malaterre & Francis Lareau
(Montréal), Mining Eight Decades of Philosophy and Philosophers of Science

18:10 Angela Ambrosino & Mario Cedrini (Torino),
What is Inside the Cambridge Journal of Economics? A Topic Modelling and Network Analysis

aula 8 / online: l.cnr.it/dr2c3s1

17 January, 9:00-13:30

Session 2. Beyond Digital Humanities

2.1. The Problem of Transparency

9:00 Paolo Tripodi (Torino), Introduction

9:10 Teresa Numerico (Roma), Abstraction and Categorization without a Cause: Epistemic Opacity in the Critical Process

9:50 Davide Pulizzotto (Montréal), Methodological Transparency in Computer-Assisted Text Analysis

10:30 Break

2.2. Hybrid Figures

10:50 Dino Buzzetti (Bologna), Introduction

11:50 Charles Pence (Louvain), Interdisciplinarity and Collaboration in Digital Philosophy

12:30 Julie Giovacchini (Paris), Building a Philosophical Glossary with TEI: the Multidisciplinary Epicurei Project.
Strength and Weakness of Thematical Named Entities
in Context

12:10 Roberto Lalli (Torino), Hybrid Experts and Scientific Cooperation in the Historical Analysis of Socio-Epistemic Networks
Discussant: Cristina Marras (Roma)
aula 2 / online: l.cnr.it/dr2c3s2

17 January, 15:30-18:40

Session 3. TEPT: Turin Enhanced Philosophy Tree

15:30 Guido Bonino (Torino), Introduction

15:50 Stefan Heßbrüggen-Walter (Berlin), Intellectual Genealogies and Canon(s) of Philosophy: Some Reflections

16:40 Break

17:00 Eugenio Petrovich (Tilburg-Torino), Links and Ties. Information Loss in the Translation of Texts into Networks

17:50 Daniele Radicioni (Torino), Reshaping
Distant Reading into Probabilistically Oriented
DR: the case of the Turin Enhanced Philosophers Tree

Discussants: Michele Alessandrelli (Roma), Davide Colla (Torino)/Michele Ciruzzi
(Insubria), Nicola Ruschena (Torino)

aula 8 / online: l.cnr.it/dr2c3s3

DR2 Research Group – ILIESI/CNR
Villa Mirafiori - Aule 2 e 8
Dipartimento di Filosofia
Sapienza Università di Roma
Via Carlo Fea, 2 – Roma

<https://dr2blog.hcommons.org>

<https://www.iliesi.cnr.it>

Third DR2 Conference – Organized by: DR2 Research Group, Department of Philosophy and Education Sciences, & DISH – Research Centre “Digital Scholarship for the Humanities”, University of Turin; Istituto per il Lessico Intellettuale Europeo e la Storia delle Idee, CNR, Roma; with the support of the FINO PhD Programme and Fondazione CRT, and in collaboration with the Philosophy Department, Sapienza University.

